LYCEUM PROGRAM

For Next Year As Announced For the First Time—Great Array of Talent to Appear Before the Maysville People.

One of the greatest treats that the Maysville people enjoy every year is the annual Lyceum program which is held in the High School auditorium every winter. This year will be the eighth year of the lyceum programs and undoubtedly the best talent that could be procured will appear here.
The numbers as selected are:
Chicago Orchestral Choir.
J. C. Nayphay.
George E. Caulbee.
The Savanoffs.
Laurant & Company.
Ng. Poon Chew.
Berliah Buck Company.
Charles R. Hingst.
The Chicago Orchestral Choir is a large musical organization and will be the first number of the course. They will give selections from famous ora-torias and other sacred musical selections.
Mr. J. C. Nayphay is a Greek Lecturer. He will lecture on Oriental Customs. Mr. Nayphay carries with him a large number of Oriental costumes which will be worn by some of the girls of the school.

Mr. George E. Caulbee is a world renowned cartoonist and lecturer. His work is interesting and at the same time instructive.

The Savanoffs are a musical company composed of five members. The entire company are Russians and will give a number of the Russian folk songs and dances.

Laurant & Company will furnish the amusement for the fifth number of the course. Mr. Laurant is said by many to be the best magician in the country.
He carries a company of six with him.

Ng. Poon Chew is a Chinese lecturer.
The Berliah Buck Company is one of the leading musical organizations of the country. They have been heard in scores of cities and have made return trips to nearly all of the places where they have been heard.

The last number of the course will be given by Charles R. Hingst, a noted humorist.

The course this year is furnished by the Redpath Lyceum Bureau and all of the numbers are entirely new to Maysville. The dates of the various numbers will be announced later.

TWO AMERICAN TROOPS PRACTICALLY WIPED OUT

Seven Survivors All That Reported—Little Force of Pershing's Men
Almost Surrounded Under Cover of the Parley Between Captain
Boyd and General Gomez and Are Raked From Three Sides

LED INTO TRAP FROM WHICH THE CARRANZA FORCE OPENED ON THEM WITH MACHINE GUNS

None of the Stragglers Able To Give Any Information As To the Fate of Remnant of the Eighty-Five Soldiers
Composing the Command

San Antonio, Texas, June 23.—The two troops of the Tenth Cavalry under Captain Charles T. Boyd, practically wiped out by the attack of Mexican forces under General Gomez at Carrizal, June 21, according to information given in fragmentary reports received by General Pershing from General Pershing tonight.

According to the story of the survivors, as outlined in General Pershing's report, the mounted force of Mexicans made a charge from the flank at the conclusion of a parley between General Gomez and Captain Boyd, at the same time that a machine gun opened fire from the front as General
Gomez reached his line.

Captain Boyd had ordered his men to dismount as the machine gun opened fire and the combined effect of the Mexican charge, the machine gun fire and the rifle fire from the Mexican garrison of Carrizal, which had almost surrounded the little American force under cover of the parley sought by General Gomez to discuss whether Captain Boyd should be allowed to pass through the town, stampeded the horses. No details were made known to General Pershing as to whether the Mexican charge was checked.

Without their mounts, and without means of escape, ringed about on three sides with the fire of an overwhelming force, the fate of the little detachment is believed by officers here to have been sealed. It is feared that only the most stuporous luck backed by desperate valor, could have extricated
Captain Boyd's men from the trap.

The report from Mexican forces placed the number of killed, including two officers, at from 12 to 40. It is reported that 17 were taken as prisoners into Chihuahua City.

The accepted percentage of wounded to those killed in modern warfare would place the wounded at from 35 to 40 at the lowest estimate. The strength of the two troops, G. and K, is not known here, but it is estimated that they could not have exceeded 130 men, allowing for those sick and on detached service.

With only seven survivors reported as arriving at the Mexican column the number of men accounted for, at least speculatively, is pitifully small.

Captain Morey Dead or a Prisoner
Field Headquarters, Colonia Dublan,
Chihuahua, via wireless to Columbus, N. M., June 23.—That Captain Morey is either dead or a prisoner was the conclusion reached here tonight when no report had been received from any of the three officers who accompanied the troops of the Tenth Cavalry engaged at Carrizal Wednesday. Mexican reports said Captain Charles T.
Boyd and Lieutenant Henry Adair were among the dead. Although sixty hours have elapsed since the fight, the only word of it has been brought to General Pershing by nine enlisted men who straggled into camp yesterday.

These men all insisted that General Gomez, the Mexican commander, and Captain Boyd in parley apparently were reaching an amicable conclusion and that immediately afterward the Americans were led into a trap from which the Mexicans opened fire upon them with concealed machine guns.

None of the stragglers reaching here was able to give any information as to the fate of the remnant of the 85 men composing the command.

Murphy Probably Among the Wounded
El Paso, Texas, June 23.—Military authorities at El Paso last night generally reached the conclusion that the officer referred to as Captain Moore and reported to have been wounded in the action at Carrizal, was Captain Lewis S. Morey, of Troop K, Tenth Cavalry.

It was pointed out that if he was the only surviving officer of the command his wounds may have prevented his reporting to General Pershing immediately.

General Pershing, according to his report, had received no word from the two battalions of the Eleventh Cavalry which he had sent to rescue the remains of Captain Boyd's expedition. He stated that he had taken no measure to support the squadron of the Eleventh.

Today Is the Time To Buy Children's Dresses

We have said before our faults are those of excess. In doing a thing well we sometimes overdo it.
For example in children's tub dresses. We gather them lavishly in order to give you satisfactory choosing. We can never sell out such a large stock completely. Some garments are always left. Therefore in order to make a complete clearance we have made prices most attractively low. The dresses are carefully made of gingham and percale of excellent quality. The models are smart and youthful. Also practically designed with a view to laundering. All sizes from 4 to 16 years.

The reductions are as follows:

$1.00 and $1.25 Dresses 75c.

$2.00 and $2.25 Dresses $1.25.

$1.50 Dresses $1.

$2.50 and $3.00 Dresses $1.50.

YOUNG MAN, WHO ARE YOU?

Are you known by your own name, or are you known merely as your father's son?

Are you known by your own good qualities and by our own acts, or are you remembered simply because you bear the name of better people who conceived you and brought you into this world?

The young man who can look his elders straight in the eye and say "I am James Martin" already has opportunity at his feet, but the fellow who can say nothing better than that "he is Robert Martin's son" will still be groping in the darkness of the future after opportunity has vanished in the distance.

Be something, do something, create a personality of your own, and the world will know you and respect you for what you are and not for what your parents were before you.

But continue content as "another man's son" and you will be accorded the respect and privileges only of "another man's son," and when death overtakes you your home paper will speak charitably of you merely as "another man's son."

President Wilson has not yet tried his system of sitting on the other fellow's neck and making him listen on Germany.

To be sure, we might delegate the Mexican task to Ford's pilgrims.

Incidentally, it is more profitable to go out and get a thing than to howl because it doesn't come your way.

But, then, preparedness might even be extended to the commercial welfare of this town.

BUT THIS IS HOW SHE DID IT

which leads from Cabin Creek to Plumville. Notwithstanding the fact, that rock is on every hand, this road is sadly in need of same. There are several small strings of broken rock which have been laying on the side of the road, it looks like, for several years. Why this rock has not been spread, I do not know. The water does more damage to this road than the travel. Several years ago, the hills of this road seemed to have had breaks put upon them but same have filled up now and do not turn the water aside. This pike is 2 2-10 miles in length.

I took the Toloboro road from Rectortville, of which there is 9-10 of a mile in Mason county. This connects with the model road which Lewis county built from Toloboro to the Mason county line. This Lewis county model road is nothing but plenty of rock with screenings for a binder and well rolled down, and cost about $200.00 per mile. It would be well worth any taxpayer's time to visit this piece of road, as I have always thought that this was the class of construction that Mason county could afford, and with a bond issue of $200,000 could have made model roads out of over 1/2 the mileage in Mason county.

I then took the Burtonville road at Rectortville and followed it to the Lewis county line from which point I make my comment. The two miles of this road in Mason county was built mostly of gravel and not to exceed five years ago, it was in splendid condition. Gravel is still available in Phillips Creek and its tributaries, for repair work, and cost nothing but the hauling. There are probably 10 or 12 rods of rock which were broken in 1915 on these two miles that have never been spread but certainly could be used to a good advantage at the points where they lay.

From Rectortville to Plumville, the road is needing a great deal of repair, not only rock but drainage, and there is no work going on, on this pike at all. There are 8 8-10 miles of the Burtonville, better known as the Mason and Lewis turnpike, in Mason county. There are five bridges on this road, all of which are in good condition.

At Plumville, I took the Day's Run pike, which is 2 1-10 miles in length to the Mt. Carmel pike, one mile from Orangeburg. This is one of the new pikes in Mason county, that is, it has not been built for more than 12 or 14 years by keeping it properly drained. It would need very little repair for many years to come.

I took the Stonelick pike from the Carmel road, and it runs across to the Taylor's Mill pike; this pike being 2 7-10 miles in length. This also is a new road, having been built in the last 10 years. It is rather steep, and, consequently, keeping the water off of it is very necessary, but this has been sadly neglected since its completion. There are a few rocks on this road which were broken last year some of which have not been scattered. There is one place, near the Stonelick Church where the bank has slipped in on the pike and causes the water to run from the ditch into the middle of the pike and is doing a great deal of harm. At the cost of $1.00, this could be eliminated.

I turned to Maysville over the Taylor's Mill pike, which certainly is in very bad condition, the water having almost ruined it. There are several strings of rock that were placed on this road last year but had never been spread. I understand, the neighbors got together yesterday and spread this rock where they would do some good. This pike is 3 4-10 miles in length, having 4 bridges upon it including the Northfork Bridge at Taylor's Mill. Rock is plentiful on this road and can be had very cheap. The record shows $156.00 spent on this road, last year, but the results certainly do not show it.

On the afternoon of June 15th, I took the Blue Run pike, at the west end of Maysville, and I must say, that I feel sorry for the man who has to travel this road very often. It is true, that this road is steep and hard to take care of but the record shows that there was $491.00 expended on this road in 1915, which is almost $125.00 per mile, enough to put a full string of rock over a mile and a half of this road, but for the lack of drainage, the water has washed it away. In justice to the expenditure, last year, there are 2 or 3 small places that show it. Rock in this vicinity can be had for a very small price and I see no reason why better results have not been had. There are 7 bridges on this road, all of which seem to be in good repair.

In going over these pikes one can not be impressed but with the idea that supervision and system are lacking. We have the supervision but certainly we are not getting results from it. The work that is done is done by no regular workman, just fellows who catch the time between crops to do the necessary work. In all my travels through Mason county, I cannot find one man who spends all of his time working the roads. Our pikes are so situated that there is no reason why one dozen men could not go kept at work regularly and become good road men. Before the time of free pikes, none of the Superintendents of toll roads had anything but experienced men to do their work, but now it seems that anybody can do the work desired by our supervision. Five years ago, the roads which I am going over today, were in very fair condition and it is hard to realize that in these 5 years and the expenditure of $150,000 that the pikes of Mason county should depreciate so fast.

The question is, where are we drifting?

LITTLE HANDS ACROSS THE SEA

An appeal has been issued to the children in the churches of the United States to make the Children's Day collections on June 11 a gift to help save from starvation, disease and death the babies and young people of school and kindergarten age in the warring countries.

The appeal was issued by the Fund for the Starving Children of Europe, 70 Fifth Avenue, New York City, an enterprise started by the Christian Work. It is attempting in this way to interest the children of the United States, as well as their elders, in the fate of those in the lands tormented their hands across the sea in a way that will not be forgotten by their own generation.

This movement emphasizes the action of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America which has already announced that many churches have recently signified their intention of devoting their Children's Day offering to this object, and has urged other churches to take similar action so far as this does not conflict with previous arrangements. The Fund which issues this appeal is unique among war relief organizations in that it is interested in children alone, not only of Europe but also of the suffering Asiatic nations.

The foreign-born population of this country is 13,500,000. This equals the population of Belgium and Holland before the war, or that of Norway, Denmark and Sweden at this time.

Tact is very often the art of seeming to be interested in other people's troubles.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WELL?

Many Maysville People Know the Importance of Healthy Kidneys

The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. Weak kidneys allow impurities to multiply. No kidney ill should be neglected. There is possible danger in delay. If you have backache or urinary troubles, if you are nervous, dizzy or worn out, begin treating your kidneys at once; use a proven kidney remedy. None endorsed like Donn's Kidney Pills.

Recommended by thousands. Proved by Maysville testimony. Laug Stevens, Maysville, says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had backache, which extended into my kidneys. The kidney action was irregular. Donn's Kidney Pills had been used in my family, so I gave them a trial. They helped me greatly."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Donn's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Stevens had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

NEARLY HALF A BILLION POUNDS OF HINDEN TWINE USED EVERY YEAR

The size of the world may be guessed at, according to Farm and Fireside by the fact that it takes nearly half a billion pounds of binder twine or to be exact, 400,000,000 pounds to meet its needs each year. An enthusiastic farmer could spend an interesting hour in figuring out how many times this twine would reach around the world.

"Of this immense amount more than 80 % is made from henequen. This fiber, which is so frequently mislabeled sisal, is secured from the leaves of the henequen plant. Henequen grows in Yucatan and Cuba, but the first named country produces most of the supply. Henequen grows in many of the tropical countries, but more than nine tenths of it comes from Yucatan. The limestone soil and the hot, dry climate there are favorable to its growth."

In case of war we might marshal our army of "favorite sons" for the first time. But, then, we fear they would prefer to be in the last line, or in no line at all.

OFFICIAL SANCTION GIVEN BY MEXICAN ARMY CHIEF TO ATTACK ON YANKEES

Mexico City, June 22.—Full responsibility for the attack upon American soldiers at Carrizal is assumed by Minister of War Obregon in an official statement issued at the War Department. This says that the Americans were trying to occupy the railway station at Carrizal. The statement is issued by General Obregon follows:

"The ministry under my charge by the First Chief's orders instructed General Jacinto H. Trevino on June 18 that if General Pershing's forces, forming the punitive expedition which penetrated our national territory after the Columbus incident, moved eastward, eastward or westward from where they were, they should be attacked. "Early this morning (Wednesday) an American force tried to occupy the station of Carrizal, on the Mexican Central Railway. General Trevino ordered it to be attacked. The fight that resulted is described in an official report rendered to this ministry by General Trevino as follows:

"June 21, 1916.—Headquarters, Chihuahua City.—To Minister of War and Navy, General Alvaro Obregon: General Francisco Gonzales reported to me last night from Ciudad Juarez that American forces were arriving at Santo Domingo. Therefore, I ordered they be attacked today, and I am informed the fight began at 8 o'clock this morning in Carrizal. I have just been informed that the American forces were repulsed.

"General Felix Gomez was seriously wounded. He commanded our forces. We have another killed and wounded.

"Seven Americans were taken prisoners and just now I received another message reporting the death of General Gomez. I am giving the necessary orders.

"General-in-Chief Jacinto H. Trevino."

"Another message quickly following this read as follows:

"Headquarters, Chihuahua City.—To General Alvaro Obregon: I regret, I have just been informed from Ciudad Juarez that when the forces were reorganized it turned out that seventeen Americans were captured, not seven as stated in the foregoing report. The Americans' interpreter was captured. He confessed that the American leader was responsible for the conflict. I have ordered that the prisoners be brought here. Respectfully, "General-in-Chief, "JACINTO H. TREVINO."

METHODIST WOMEN AND HOME MISSIONS.

The women of the Methodist Episcopal Church have raised $3,432,505 during the last four years for home missions, according to the figures submitted to the General Conference of the Church. This is an increase of nearly $100,000 over that raised during the preceding four years. The money is contributed through the Woman's Home Missionary Society. The Society, according to the report, owns schools, hospitals, homes for girls, and other institutions in the United States, Alaska and Porto Rico, that are valued at $2,334,163. The organization's activities comprise social and religious work among Negroes, immigrants, Indians, young women and mountaineers. In seven cities it conducts settlement houses.

AMERICAN SPIRIT HUGHES' THEME

Declares to Brown University Graduates that in Conviction of Such Nationally Lies Manhood—Warrior Welcome Given Republican Nominee.

Providence, R. I., June 23.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential nominee Wednesday told the graduating class and alumni of Brown University that the American spirit was not to be fed in the classroom by such a nice balancing that conviction was not in this position. I dreaded the responsibilities for I know full well the problems that are before us. I know full well the problems that will confront us in America after this war shall end. I know all the constructive power we possess must be drawn upon to meet them, and I am here with such powers as I possess, to be placed if they are desired, at the disposal of our country.

"I am here," he said, "as a member of the class of '81—a class once called the smallest and sorriest in college. We did not have in those days the things you have now. We did not have a swimming pool, a gymnasium, magnificent dormitories. I don't believe we had a whole pane of glass in most of our dormitory windows. Why, talk about the American spirit—that's what kept us warm. That's what kept us alive. That's the reason we are here. "When I come back to Brown, I am not thinking of buildings as my shrine. I am thinking of men, college men, warm blooded, true-hearted American men, having freedom of speech and freedom of discussion, men having the capacity of democracy to deal with problems which our democracy is now facing and must settle."

Mr. Hughes' address, intended for the men of Brown University, was devoted almost wholly to Brown traditions and to recalling incidents of thirty-five years ago when he attended the university.

"I merely want to say this informal word to you," he said, "that as an old graduate, for I am here only in that character, I wanted a draught from the old spring before I plunged into the fight."

The nominee, not on the program as a speaker, was called from his seat in the body of the audience to the platform after the last set speech. He had been cheered and lionized all day by alumni and when he led his class into the big tent on the campus to hear the closing exercises, the crowd roared.

Given Nutsy Welcome

The classes of Brown, past and present, rose one by one and gave him their favorite college yell, the "Long Brown." The class of '76, a handful of gray-haired men, led off the big class of '07 was the last. Led by a lithe cheer leader who seemed all arms and legs, the undergraduates boomed out a noisy welcome to "Charlie Hughes."

He came to the platform amid more applause after President Brown, of the Alumni Association, had recommended the Mariner's Creed. "To Mind His Four L's—lead, lag, latitude and look-out" to "Hughes of '81." Faced wreathed in smiles, he took the few steps to the platform and held out his hand for silence.

"I am simply a Brown boy trying to do his duty," he said and the crowd roared again. Again and again the nominee repeated in substance that he had not come to speak to them as a political standardbearer, but as a grownup college boy, home on a vacation. Then he spoke of the American spirit. "We have the American spirit," he said, "but it is a fire that each generation must keep burning. It is not to be fed by cynical comment; it is not to be fed in the classroom by such a nice balancing that conviction is not in this position. I dreaded the responsibilities for I know full well the problems that are before us. I know full well the problems that will confront us in America after this war shall end. I know all the constructive power we possess must be drawn upon to meet them, and I am here with such powers as I possess, to be placed if they are desired, at the disposal of our country."

A SHOCKING OMISSION

(The Churchman)

I don't want to give anyone a bad shlek, but the truth must out. Though there are monuments at San Juan Hill, and though bronze arrows point to where this and that and the other General or Colonel had his headquarters, and though there is what appears to be a complete description of the battle on the spot, in no place (prepare for a jolt), on the monuments or on the earth, did I find so much as a reference to the name of T. R.

CHARLES HUGHES' SON AND OTHER NOTABLES ENTERING THE ARMY

Hattsburg, N. Y., June 22.—Charles E. Hughes, Jr., son of the Republican nominee for President, is to be a corporal in the training regiment here, as shown by the list of officers given out by Major Murray.

Archibald Roosevelt, son of Theodore Roosevelt, is to be a battalion quartermaster.

W. E. Hoeking, professor of philosophy at Harvard; David P. Harrows, formerly United States Commissioner of Education in the Philippines and a member of the Belgian Relief Committee, and Gaston Sargent, principal bass of the Chicago Opera Company, have been promoted to corporals.

ROOSEVELT CONEERS

With U. S. P. Leaders Also Meets Progressives On Trip to New York in Automobile.

New York, June 23.—Theodore Roosevelt, who motored to New York today from his home at Oyster Bay, saw and conferred with many Progressive and Republican leaders, including Frank H. Kellogg, of Minnesota; James H. Garfield, of Ohio; Matthew Hall, of Boston; George W. Perkins, Hamilton Fish and Harry S. Josephs, of Utah. Colonel Roosevelt returned to Oyster Bay late today.

Mr. Kellogg, who has just defeated Senator Clapp, of Minnesota, for the Republican senatorial nomination in Minnesota, was known as the "trust buster" of the Roosevelt administration. He called on Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential nominee, before seeing Colonel Roosevelt, but declined to state what the nature of his conversation with either Mr. Hughes or Mr. Roosevelt was about. He declared, however, that he believed there would be "perfect harmony" in the forthcoming campaign.

Guy Emerson and T. C. Desmond, secretary and treasurer, respectively, of the Roosevelt Non-Partisan League, also called on the Colonel. With his approval, they issued a statement in which they announced the release of the 75,000 members from support of the Colonel.

WHAT NOT TO EXPECT IN A HUSBAND

In the June Woman's Home Companion a writer says:

"Don't expect all the virtues in one man. If he is good-natured he may be lazy; if he is scholarly, he may be cold; if he is thrifty, he may be stingy; if he is generous, he may be wasteful; if he is smooth, he may be deceitful. The man who charms you with his immediate appearance is likely to be something of an old maid; the man who is careful to pick threads off your skirt is prone to pick flaws in you; the man who takes an undue interest in the selection of your hair may take an undue interest in the bill which comes home; the man who, before marriage, jumps to open the door, lest your fingers be contaminated by the knob, may after marriage, allow those same fingers to be contaminated by the washboard."

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Braucher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

"I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles."

"Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me. At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing."

"I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

"If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years."

A MOTHER OF PREACHERS

At the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow the sermon will be by Dr. Horace Cady Wilson. He is a very fine preacher and is now serving one of the most important churches in the North West at Lansing, Mich. He is a son of "the old First Church" as is the present pastor Dr. John Harbourn. In addition to these Dr. Henry M. Scudder and Dr. Maurice Waller, sons of the old church, have been among the most honored of the Presbyterian ministry. This is a good record for this church.

ABOUT HELEN GIBSON

Helen Gibson is said to be the most daring girl appearing in motion pictures. Her daring adventures in the thrilling railroad drama "The Governor's Special" is said to be remarkable and sensational. Miss Gibson will appear in "The Governor's Special" at the Pastime today. Others on the program are "The Love's Injustice," Lubin drama and Plump and Runt in "The Serenade," a Fokes and Jables comedy.

LADIES' DAY

Proves a Jinx to Our Boys, Who Are Defeated by the Old Taylors by a Score of 4 to 1—Kelly Has Great Day.

Frankfort downed the local team in the League Park Friday afternoon by the score of 4 to 1. As usual Ladies' Day was the jinx. The game was well played on both sides but the Old Taylors got the best of it. Kelly had a great day at the bat getting two triples and two singles out of five trips to the plate. Robert Jones also made a triple. Frankfort scored two in the first. Kimble flied to Thlin. Henges and Lindholm singled. Kelly hit for three sacks scoring Henges and Lindholm. The boys from the state capital scored again in the third. With two down Kelly made his second triple and scored a minute later when R. Jones also hit the pill for three sacks. Maysville made her first and only rally in the fourth frame. Manager Jones singled, Thlin fouled out, Williams forced Jones at second, Kohlbecker hit the ball a joyous wallop for two bases, Williams coming home. Kohlbecker went to third on Sanfords error but dled there when Coyle grounded out. Henges to Kelly. The Old Taylors scored their last run in the seventh. With two down, Henges drew a pass and was batted in by Lindholm and Kelly.
